Student Council, don't forget, meeting tomorrow morning at 7:25 in the Media Center.

Attention Varsity G Members:

Anyone who is willing to work the table for the walking program next Monday from 6:00-8:00 please let Ms. Swigart know ASAP, thank you!

Monday – French Fact – November 6, 2017 This week the French classes will be celebrating National French week. We would like to share some facts about France and the French-speaking world everyday with you, beginning today! French is one of the very few languages spoken all over the world. It is ranked the sixth most widely spoken language. There are currently over 220 million French speakers worldwide. French is an official language of 29 countries, second only to English in this category. If you have ever had a desire to visit the country of France – this is your chance! This evening at 7pm, join Mademoiselle Mikesell in the cafeteria to hear about the opportunity to join her in France and Italy in the summer of 2019 (the ability to speak French is not required to go on the trip!)
