Other Notes

- We will soon be having a sight word challenge. Please be working with your child on their kindergarten sight words. More information will be sent home later. I sent home a sight word list earlier this year and will send another one with the challenge information.
- Parent/Teacher Conferences – My time is very limited for this one night of conferences. While I'd love to meet with everyone, I will have to pick and choose. I will send an invitation to those I'd like to meet with based on needs. If you do not receive an invitation but still want to meet, let me know and I will see what I can do to accommodate. Thank you for understanding!
- Kindergarten Registration – Information was sent home and put on Seesaw a few days ago. Let me know if you have any questions.
- Waves of Pride – Art show at the high school. Come see what your child has done in art this year. You can also check out displays from other grades up to 12th grade.
