

ANNOUNCEMENTS 2/16/24;

The word of the week is motivated: Extraordinarily motivated people are driven to go above and beyond; they are trusted by others, focused and have great confidence in their own abilities. They dream of endless possibilities, and tend to be extremely satisfied with their lives.

Meet the WAVE WAY expectations at breakfast Follow all wave expectations at breakfast to continue to enjoy the privilege

Be the change: Never believe that a few caring people can't change the world. For, indeed, that's all who ever have." – Margaret Mead

Please support the PTA through the Penny War fundraiser plus it would be great to have your grade win the second annual Penny War! There's not enough silver in the staff grade bucket!

Follow all grab and go breakfast expectations. Eat in the cafeteria if you want before 7:20a or eat in the classroom and be done right after announcements. (or eat at home) Breakfast is a very important part of your day!

"Mrs. Drees would like to congratulate her 3rd period class for having a 100% passing rate on their latest Mastery Check! Their hard work is paying off! Keep up the Good Work!"

For any 7th and 8th Grade students who are still interested in Track and Field but missed the mandatory parent and athlete meeting, please contact Mr. Curtis ASAP.

Youth For Christ will meet during 7/8 lunch in room 334 today.

We do not have school Monday to honor our Presidents for President's Day.
