

- ANNOUNCEMENTS 3/12/24:
- The word of the week is Agility : ability to think and understand quickly.
- Meet the WAVE WAY expectations with your hallway If you stay to the right of the hallway it is respectful
- Accountability breeds response—ability.
— Stephen R. Covey
- Attention 6th graders --- if you were absent and did not receive a registration paper for 7th grade, please see Mrs. Guillozet during Wave Time. Also THANK YOU to those who have already turned their form back in!
- Quarter 3 PBIS Incentive will be a Fun Friday Schedule This Friday. The focus is not to have any missing work. The cut Off Date for turning in work is 2:40 on 3/13. The gradebook will be updated by the teachers with missing codes (student deadline will be set by each teacher) 5/6 students will be upstairs and 7/8 students will be downstairs for the activities they sign up for. Make sure to have your work caught up so you can participate in the FUN!
- 8th graders going on the DC trip it is time to pick your roommates. Four people per room is required. If you do not submit 4 people in your room, additional roommates will be chosen for you. Roommate selection forms will be available in the office beginning Friday. Each participant must sign their own name to the form and circle the t-shirt size required. Forms are due in the office by Friday, March 15th.
- SPACC will be meeting this Monday March 18. Please bring your iPad to the meeting.
- Wed and Fri the PTA will be in the cafeteria during lunch time on Wed and Fri to sell raffle tickets for the Shamrock bags displayed in the showcase. 1 ticket is $1 and 6 tickets are $5. Teachers and students please support the PTA in helping raise funds for our school activities.
- The company working on the back doors and windows has requested we not use those doors for the rest of this week to allow the curing of the materials. We will be using door 17 to come in from recess and go out for dismissal (as well as the playground doors) we will prop the doors in the morning for entrance to keep us from pushing on the glass accidentally.
- Today's lunch: mac and cheese, steamed broccoli and fruit
- Tomorrow's lunch: breaded chicken, green beans, and fruit

Pledge

Moment of silence