

ANNOUNCEMENTS 4/3/24:

- The word of the week is Endeavor to attempt (something, such as the fulfillment of an obligation) by exertion of effort.
- Meet the WAVE WAY expectations in Stairs it is responsible to walk down and up the stairs
- Oprah Winfrey “The greatest discovery of all time is that a person can change his future by merely changing his attitude.” BE THE CHANGE
- students, please make sure your iPads are updated and charged for testing next week.
- Testing starts for the 7/8 grade ELA classes today in the media center. Please be quiet around the media center
- Thank you to those students, families, and staff who joined us at Waves of Pride this past Thursday! What a great celebration of our young artists and all your achievements this school year!
 - This year's door prize winners were:
 - 5th grade: Ainsley King
 - 6th grade: Kayla Schmitz
 - 7th grade: Emma Merzke
 - 8th grade: Savannah Garren
 - Congratulations! You can stop by Ms. Brewer's room to pick up your prizes!
- 😊
- Congratulations to the following students who were nominated and chosen for our March Student of the Month:
 - Fifth Grader: Kinsley Barger: Kinsley was nominated by Mrs. Miller. Kinsley was nominated because she is always hard working and helpful in the classroom. She took it upon herself to assist the teacher in getting students caught up on work when absent. Kinsley has an excellent personality and is always caring and kind to other students.
 - Sixth Grader: Sadie Enicks: Saide was nominated by Mr. Levek. Sadie was nominated because she consistently demonstrates a strong work ethic and enthusiasm for learning. Sadie's commitment to understanding concepts thoroughly is evident in the quality of her assignments and assessments. What truly sets Sadie apart is her initiative and responsibility in completing work outside of school hours. Her proactive approach to learning not only reinforces her understanding but also serves as an inspiration to her peers.
 - Seventh Grader: Ben Marden: Ben was nominated by Mrs. Brinkman. Ben was nominated because every day at recess he makes sure all of the balls are put away before he goes to lunch. Even though he does not play with them he cleans up after his classmates. Wouldn't it be a better place to live if everyone went beyond what is required of them?!

- Eighth Grader: Leah Force: Leah was nominated by Mr. Martin. Leah was nominated because she is a scholar-athlete and leads by example both in and out of the classroom. Leah is a genuinely caring individual when dealing with everyone. Our theme is "Be the Change" and Leah strives to meet that challenge.
- We would also like to congratulate the other students who were nominated this month:
 - 5th Graders: Abigail Hollon, Ben Furbush
 - 6th Grader: Lucas Gillespie, Elena Blankenship, Ethan Sabroff, Kourtnei Fort, Piper Jenkinson, Kylie McDonald
 - 7th Graders: Emma Whittaker
 - 8th Graders: Kevin Sanders
 - 5/6 graders please see Mrs. Guillozet for your t-shirt and sign. 7/8 graders please see Mr. Turner
- Today's lunch: chicken nuggets with dinner roll green beans and fruit
- Tomorrow's lunch: Pancakes, sausage links, hash browns and fruit
