Don't forget you change for the PTA penny wars for the next two weeks. Pennies are positive points for your grade level, put silver and dollars as negative points in the other grades' containers to give them negative points. May the best grade win!

For those who didn't hear yesterday: Congratulations to the following students who were nominated and chosen for our January Student of the Month:

Fifth Grader: Ian Baumann: Ian was nominated by Mrs. Gibson. Ian was nominated because he does a great job asking questions about what we are learning.

Sixth Grader: Colby Warner: Colby was nominated by Mrs. Schweser. Colby was nominated because she is an excellent example of the theme "Be the Change".

Seventh Grader: Kai Swishhelm: Kai was nominated by Mrs. Colley. Kai was nominated because she has made amazing progress in language arts!

Eighth Grader: Justice Young: Justice was nominated by Mrs. Wenrich. Justice was nominated because he has been working really hard lately. He has also been using his Wave Time to work on making sure that he has his work completed correctly and in a timely manner.

5th Graders: Hayley Kennett, Brandt Weaver, and Liam Odum

6th Grader: Kate Manix

7th Graders: Ahava Garber, Sophie Shafer, and Letty Koeller

8th Graders: Damian Coppess, Elijah Wombolt, James Denney, Grady Looker, Jak Keyser, and Caleigh Stebbins

5/6 graders please see Mrs. Guillozet for your t-shirt and sign. 7/8 graders please see Mr. Turner

The GMS theater workshop is inviting the entire school to participate in a spirit week as they gear up for their musical, Sister Act Jr. We would love to see how "Fabulous" you will all look. Please join us for the performances at Memorial Hall on Friday the 9th and two shows on Saturday the 10th.

Tomorrow (2/7): Tourist in Philly Day: Our story takes place in Philadelphia. Dress like you're going on vacation (it can be to your favorite place).

Need tickets for the musical? No problem. Mrs. Thompson will be selling tickets next week during wave time in the choir room. 7th and 8th grade students can purchase their tickets on Wednesday, February 7. 5th and 6th grade students may purchase their tickets Thursday, February 8. Posters are up around the middle school with this information or stop and talk to Mrs. Thompson in the choir room.
