Newsletter #22

Notes from Mrs. Rieman

Next week is Read Across America Week! We will be celebrating with different activities and dress up days! The schedule went home earlier this week. I have included a copy on the back of the newsletter.

The following week (March 10-14) is our book fair and Pizza Bingo nights. We will go as a class to the book fair on Tuesday, March 11. You are welcome to send money with your child that day or set up an e-wallet using the information sent home earlier this week. If you send cash, please put it in an envelope or bag with your child's name.

Have a great weekend!

Mrs. Rieman 😊

Our Specials Schedule

- Monday- Music
- Tuesday- Library
- Wednesday- Art
- Thursday- Gym
- Friday- Art

What We've Been Learning:

Reading: This week we focused on poetry. We read free-verse poems and poems with a rhyme scheme. We learned about similes and antonyms.

Spelling: This week we learned about r-controlled vowel, or. We studied words like report, porch, and storm.

Math: We learned how centimeters and meters are related and measured items using both. We also learned we can use everyday objects to estimate the length of objects.

Writing: We chose topics to begin writing our own informational books.

Social Studies: We learned about how transportation and communication have changed over time.

Homework

Spelling: Study these words:
answer, been, heard, build
CHALLENGE words: centimeter, measurement

Math: Pages 93-94. Turn it in by Friday for Dojo points!

Reading: Read 15 minutes every night.
