Notes from Mrs. Rieman

Today is the last day of the 3rd quarter! Report cards will go home on Friday, March 28.

Waves of Pride, which is our district-wide art show, will take place on Thursday, March 27 from 6:30-8:00pm at the high school. Every student will have artwork on display that night. There will also be performances by the high school band and choir groups. It is a great night to celebrate the talents of our students!

Our specials schedule changes starting next week. Our class has gym 2 days a week- Thursdays and Fridays!

Have a great weekend!

Mrs. Rieman ☺

Our Specials Schedule

- Monday- Music
- Tuesday- Library
- Wednesday- Art
- Thursday- Gym
- Friday- GYM

What We've Been Learning:

Reading: This week we read about choices. We read "A Difficult Choice" and "Grace for President." We are using these stories to learn about character perspective.

Spelling: This week we learned about words that have a silent e that doesn't change the vowel sound, like in have, voice, horse, live.

Math: We learned how to count dollar bills in values of 1, 5, 10, and 20. We also started learning to tell time.

Writing: We are finishing informational writing this week. Folders with students' writing will be sent home next week.

Science: We are learning about ecosystems- the interactions of living and nonliving things in an area.

Homework

Spelling: Study these words:
questions, o'clock, father, mother
CHALLENGE words: ecosystem, environment

Math: Pages 111-112. Turn it in by Friday for Dojo points!

Reading: Read 15 minutes every night.
