Newsletter #12

Notes from Mrs. Rieman

Our Fall Harvest Party will be Tuesday, November 21. I've sent home reminders this week if you signed up to bring something. Thank you!

Our class earned the cleanest room in 2nd grade award! They have voted to have a pajama day as their prize! Your child is invited to wear their pjs this Monday, November 20. Thanks!

We will NOT have a new newsletter, a spelling test or homework next week. I have listed the spelling words and math homework for the week we come back from Thanksgiving break, November 27-December 1.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Mrs. Rieman 😊

What We're Learning

Reading This week we read two different Native American legends. We wrote about the main idea and details of the stories, and identified character traits about the main characters. We will compare and contrast the two stories next week.

Math We continue to practice different strategies for adding 2-digit numbers.

Writing We wrote opinions about our favorite restaurant. We added reasons and examples.

Social Studies This week we learned about Native American culture through legends.

Homework

(for the week AFTER Thanksgiving!)

Spelling Practice these words:

good, often, too

We will be studying words with oi and oy like in coin, boy, spoil, joy, join, boil.

Reading Read at least 15 minutes each night. Practice reading the books in your reading bag.

Math Pages 51 and 52. Turn these in by Friday, Dec 1 for Dojo points!
